

COBS Bread Opening in Kitchener Just In Time For Holidays

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 14, 2018 (Kitchener, ON) – Canada’s largest bakery franchise, COBS Bread, will be opening Monday, Dec 17th at Fairway Plaza in Kitchener, just in time for the holidays.

This is the first COBS Bread bakery in Kitchener, but will be Ontario’s 25th COBS Bread bakery. The bakery will be owned and operated by local Steff Steers, also the owner of the COBS Bread bakery at The Boardwalk in Waterloo. “The community has really embraced our bakery and the fresh product we bake, and the delightful service we provide. I knew as soon as I opened the first one that I wanted to open a second!” Steers opened the location at The Boardwalk in July of 2017.

Owners of all COBS Bread bakeries are also actively involved in their local communities which is a cornerstone of the COBS Bread brand. All products are baked fresh daily on site and unsold product is donated to local charities at the end of the day. It is well-known for its range of traditional and artisan breads, as well as sweet and savoury treats such as scones, croissants and danishes.

COBS Bread is located at 569 Fairway Road, Kitchener and will be open from 7am-7pm every day. For more information, visit the local bakery page at www.cobsbread.com/local-bakery/fairway-plaza.
