(Lloydminster, AB) Feb 13, 2019 – Canada’s largest bakery franchise, COBS Bread, is scheduled to open early this Sunday, February 17th at Brentwood Commons on 44th st. in Lloydminster, AB.

The bakery will be owned and operated by local Sarah Beaunoyer, who has worked in the food and customer industry for many years. “I love baking!” Says Beaunoyer. “My husband had recently sold his business and we were looking for a change. When we saw the ad for COBS Bread, I knew this was something I wanted to do- bringing happiness to others through fresh baked goodness!”

In addition to baking fresh bread and treats all day every day, owners of all COBS Bread bakeries are actively involved in their local communities through the End of Day Giving program, which is a cornerstone of the COBS Bread brand. COBS Bread is well-known for its range of traditional and artisan breads, as well as sweet and savoury treats such as scones, croissants and danishes. All product is sold on the same day it is baked. If it is not, it is donated to charitable organizations in the community.
